

A Music Quiz

By Subhashree & Priyanka

IQL

11/1/2008

An IQL Presentation

1

Question 1

- Identify

11/1/2008

An IQL Presentation

2

Question 2

- X is a performance, in Indian classical music, featuring two solo musicians. X means “entwined twins”. Often, the musicians (may be from different traditions) play different instruments, as for example the famous duets between Sitarist Ravi Shankar and Sarod player Ali Akbar Khan, who popularized the format with their performances of the 1970s.
- What is X?

Question 3

- A small rod idiophone of fine musical value is the which in English is called the Jew's harp or the Jaw's harp, though there is no resemblance to the harp at all.
- This diminutive instrument seven to eight centimeters in length in a folk instrument found in places such as Rajasthan and the Brij districts of Uttar Pradesh.
- But in the South it is very frequently used in concert music as a kind of rhythmic auxiliary to the mridangam, ghatam and the ganjira.
- What is X?

Question 4

- Name the band and identify the member who has been grayed out.

11/1/2008

An IQL Presentation

5

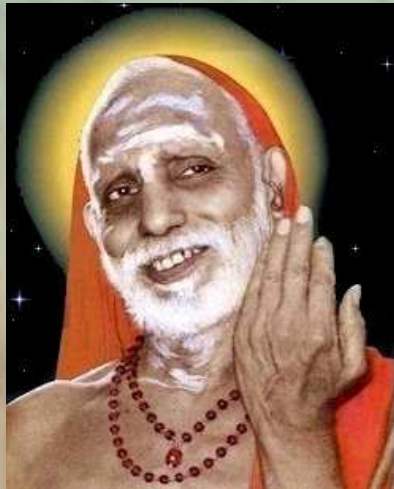

Question 5

- Connect

Question 6

- Connect

Question 7

- X is an American singer-songwriter, record producer, and actress. She rose to fame in the late 1990s as the lead singer of girl group Destiny's Child, the best-selling girl group of all time. X has christened herself Sasha Fierce for her new double album. X has also recently teamed up with her designer mother Tina for the launch of their latest collection in their fashion range of House of Dereon.
- Identify X.

Question 8

- Apple Corps Ltd. is a multi-armed multimedia corporation founded in January 1968 by X to replace their earlier company Y and to form a conglomerate. Its chief division is Apple Records, which was launched in the same year. Other divisions included Apple Electronics, Apple Films, Apple Publishing, and Apple Retail, whose most notable venture was the ill-fated Apple Boutique in London. Apple's headquarters, in the late-1960s, was at 3 Savile Row in London, known as the Apple Building, which was also home to the Apple Studio.
- Who is/are X and what is Y?

Question 9

- This famous Carnatic music accompaniment comes as two types: Madras and Manamadurai. The Madras version is for fast patterns. The Manamadurai produces a sharp metallic ringing sound which is favored by some players. The bass sound of it is called Gumki
- What instrument is being referred to?

Question 10

- “Sugar Sugar” was the #1 song of 1969 in the US. It was also a huge hit in the UK, where it stayed at #1 for 8 weeks.

This is a best example of what genre?